If you want to read the greatest and most celebrated poetry written in English, this is an excellent place to start, as it contains many of the greatest hits in English-language poetry (unlike most of the others on this list, it also includes a generous amount of poetry by American poets such as Sylvia Plath and Wallace Stevens), and so. And All Day Long a collection of poetry for children by Pamela Whitlock, bought long ago when I was young and still loved. Loading interesting literature. The New Poetry was a collection put together by Al Alvarez with a Jackson Pollock on the cover, and it had Hughes, Plath and the like in it.
